Strategic Development & Consulting

Position: TL Expert in waste statistics Cocation: ENPI countries Elligible nationalities: All nationalities Start of project: 11 th January 2016 Assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Diplective: Global objective • The objective denvironmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims os support the implementation on SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills • At least Master's Depree in one or more of the following: environmenta fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent command of the English language (witten and oral, C1); • Excellent command of the English language (witten and oral, C1); • Coded knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 10 years of opersional experience in working on statistics related to waste balley and waste management; • At least 5 years of proprisonal experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or Multilateral Envinomental asistance projects in transiton and/or developing eco	Deciect title:	Implementation of the Shared Environmental Information System principles and practices in the Eastern Partnership countries (SEIS East) – part on waste
Position: TL Expert in waste statistics Location: ENPI countries Elligible nationalities: All nationalities Start of project: 11 ^a January 2016 Assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Dipictive: Global objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based poolicy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation o SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability an accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification of skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental information. Qualifications required: • • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental information. Qualifications required: • • At least State and progressional experience • At least Syers of experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of professional exp	Project title:	and practices in the Eastern Partnership countries (SEIS East) – part on waste statistics
Location: ENPI countries Eligible nationalities: All nationalities Start of project: 11 th January 2016 Assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Objective: Global objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation on SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental information. Qualification and skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environment institutions; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent communication and or developing economies; • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste statistics. Good knowledge of the European Union proceement of the EL environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreement: that are relevant to the EAP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental a	Position:
Start of project: 11 th January 2016 Assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Cholar objective: Clobal objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation o SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability an accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification ad skills Qualification strepting: • equivalent fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent command of the English language (written and oral, C1); • Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience • At least 5 years of experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of experience • At least 5 years of experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; • General experience demonstrating an u	Location:
Assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Dijective: Global objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation on SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (EaSt countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability an accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills Qualifications required: Qualification and skills Qualifications required: Qualification and skills Qualification strept • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalen fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent communication and/or developing economies; • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; • General professional experience for th	Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities assignment duration: 24 months Deadline: 30.10.2015 Objective: Global objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation of SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (East countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalen fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent communication and management; • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 10 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 10 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; • General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or diverse or forcement of the EL environmental activities or turnes or waste statistics? • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance project	Start of project:	11 th January 2016
Objective: Global objective • The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation o SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalen fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent command of the English language (written and oral, (1); • Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of profesional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of profesional and/or enforcement of the the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the the unervironmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreement that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environment of the the transposition, implementation and oral oral oral y other loca languages. • Experience wo	Assignment duration:
 The objective of the proposed activity is to further mainstream evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environmentation or SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualifications required: Qualification and skills At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmental sciences or management, environmental engineering; or equivalen fields with a focus on statistics; Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; Excellent communication and management skills and practices in waste statistics. Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing conomies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing conomies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing conomies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing conomies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental acquis and/or dutilateral Environmental field; General experience Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related tora waste statistics/ waste management. Specific pro	Deadline:	30.10.2015
evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation on SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (Eaf countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information. Qualification and skills • At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalen fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent command of the English language (written and oral, C1); • Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in the environmental field; • General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EL environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreement: that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets • Experience working with international organizations; • Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. <t< td=""><td>Objective:</td><td></td></t<>	Objective:
 At least Master's Degree in one or more of the following: environmenta sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalent fields with a focus on statistics; Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; Excellent communication and management skills and oral, C1); Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EU environmental acquirs and/or Multilateral Environmental argument; that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental acquirs and/or Multilateral Environmental scales or Wember or accession States. Specific professional experience Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets Experience working with international organizations; Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. Other information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please in		evidence-based environmental information into knowledge-based policy-making and good governance in the field of the environment. More specifically, the activity aims to support the implementation of SEIS principles and practices in the six Eastern Partnership countries (EaP countries), as a tool for improving the quality, availability and accessibility of environmental information.
sciences or management; environmental engineering; or equivalent fields with a focus on statistics; • Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; • Excellent command of the English language (written and oral, C1); • Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in waste statistics. General professional experience • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in transition and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreement; that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreements that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental authorities in the beneficiary countries or EU new Member or accession States. Specific professional experience • Management experience • Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets • Experience working with international organizations; • Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. Ot	Qualifications required:
General professional experience • At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; • At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; • At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; • General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EL environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreements that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental authorities in the beneficiary countries or EU new Member or accession States. Specific professional experience • Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets • Experience working with international organizations; • Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. Dther information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		 Excellent communication and management skills and demonstrable capacity to lead a small team and to work with government institutions; Excellent command of the English language (written and oral, C1); Good knowledge of the European Union procedures and practices in
 At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EL environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreements that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental authorities in the beneficiary countries or EU new Member or accession States. Specific professional experience Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets Experience working with international organizations; Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. Dther information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted. to waste policy and waste management; At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EL environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreements: that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental authorities in the beneficiary countries or EU new Member or accession States. Specific professional experience Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets Experience working with international organizations; Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other loca languages. Dther information: If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		 At least 10 years professional experience in working on statistics related to waste policy and waste management; At least 5 years of experience in the framework of technical assistance projects in transition and/or developing economies; At least 5 years of professional experience with technical assistance projects in the environmental field; General experience demonstrating an understanding of a) the transposition, implementation and/or enforcement of the EU environmental acquis and/or Multilateral Environmental Agreements that are relevant to the EaP region and b) of the challenges faced by environmental authorities in the beneficiary countries or EU new Member or accession States. Specific professional experience Management experience in projects with multidisciplinary teams related to waste statistics/ waste management. Assets Experience working with international organizations; Proficiency in Russian language (written and oral) or any other local languages.
heading "ENPI - TL Expert in waste statistics". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Other information:
When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
		When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers.
	Contact:	lot11@ntu.eu

Strategic Development & Consulting

