	1
g	(N1	ru)
	C

Location:       Malawi         Eligible nationalities:       All nationalities         Start of project:       9 June 2014         Assignment duration:       40 working days         Deadline:       07/04/2014         Objective of the project:       Global Objective         The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.         Specific objectives       The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.         Qualifications required:       Qualifications and skills         • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;         • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills         General Professional Experiences Required         • At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;         Demonstrated knowledge of SWAP in the governan	Project title:	Mid Term Evaluation of the Democratic Governance Programme in Malawi
Eligible nationalities:       All nationalities         Start of project:       9 June 2014         Assignment duration:       40 working days         Deadline:       07/04/2014         Objective of the project::       Global Objective         The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.         Specific objectives       The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.         Qualifications required:       Qualifications and skills         • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;       • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills         General Professional Experiences Required       • At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;         • Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an a	Position:	International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)
Satt of project:       9 June 2014         Assignment duration:       40 working days         Deadline:       07/04/2014         Objective of the project:       Global Objective         The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.         Specific objectives       The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of timplementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.         Qualifications required:       Qualifications and skills         • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;         • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills         General Professional Experience Required         • At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;         • Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;         • Goo	Location:	Malawi
Assignment duration:       40 working days         Deadline:       07/04/2014         Objective of the project:       Global Objective         Global Objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.         Specific Objectives       The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDr. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.         Qualifications required:       Qualifications and skills         • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;         • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills         General Professional Experience Required         • At least 12 years working experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;         • Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.         Other information:       If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malowi & International Democratic Governanc	Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Deadline:         07/04/2014           Objective of the project:         Global Objective           The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.           Specific objectives         The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.           Qualifications required:         Qualifications and skills           • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;         • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills           General Professional Experiences Required         • At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;           • Demonstrated knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;         • Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.           Other information:         If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heoding "Mulawi & Iternational Demo	Start of project:	9 June 2014
Objective of the project:         Global Objective           The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.           Specific objectives         The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.           Qualifications required:         Qualifications and skills           • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;           • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills           General Professional Experiences Required           • At least 12 years working experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;           • Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.           Other information:         If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malawi & International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leager). When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please	Assignment duration:	40 working days
The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework.         Specific objectives       The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation methodology.         Qualifications required:       Qualifications and skills         • Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;         • Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills         General Professional Experiences Required         • At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;         • Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;         • Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.         Other information:       If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malawi & International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)". When sen	Deadline:	07/04/2014
<ul> <li>Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;</li> <li>Excellent written and spoken English, as well as excellent communication skills</li> <li>General Professional Experiences Required</li> <li>At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;</li> <li>Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;</li> <li>Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.</li> <li>Other information:</li> <li>If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malawi &amp; International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)". When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.</li> </ul>	Objective of the project:	The overall objective of this assignment is to conduct a Mid-Term Review (MTR) in order to assess the overall progress of the Democratic Governance Programme to date against the anticipated results in the Financing Agreement and its Logical Framework. Specific objectives The primary purpose of the requested MTR is to assess how far the expected results of the project have been achieved to date and draw lessons for the remaining period of implementation as well as inform the design of potential new programmes in support of the governance sector under the 11th EDF. The specific criteria to be used by the MTR is analysing the overall project performance against the results anticipated in the Logical Framework in line with standard EC evaluation
<ul> <li>At least 12 years working experience and sound expertise in the areas of democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;</li> <li>Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;</li> <li>Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.</li> <li>Other information:</li> <li>If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malawi &amp; International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)". When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.</li> </ul>	Qualifications required:	<ul> <li>Masters' Degree level of qualification in law or democratic governance or a similarly related field;</li> </ul>
democratic governance, civic education, access to both formal and informal justice or rule of law;         • Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;         • Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-Saharan Africa.         Other information:         If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EU format under the heading "Malawi & International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)".         When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers.         Only selected candidates will be contacted.		General Professional Experiences Required
<ul> <li>If you are interested in this position please send your CV in EO format under the heading "Malawi &amp; International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)".</li> <li>When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers.</li> <li>Only selected candidates will be contacted.</li> </ul>		<ul> <li>justice or rule of law;</li> <li>Demonstrated knowledge and experience in institutional strengthening and capacity building. Knowledge of SWAP in the governance sector will be an added advantage;</li> <li>Good understanding and knowledge of the social and political realities in Sub-</li> </ul>
Contact: lot7@ntu.eu	Other information:	heading "Malawi &amp; International Democratic Governance Expert (Team Leader)" . When sending your application pl ease include an indication of your desired remuneration (day-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers.
	Contact:	lot7@ntu.eu	