Project title:	Consulting Services for the Development of Climate Resilient Infrastructure Standards and Codes for the Transport Sector in Zambia
Position:	National Geographical Information Systems (GIS) Specialist
Location:	Lusaka, Zambia
Eligible nationalities:	Zambian
Start of project:	October 2016
Assignment duration:	12 months
Deadline:	17 June 2016
Objective of the project:	To support the review current capabilities and use of geographical information systems (GIS) and visually represent the results of the climate change impacts, vulnerability and adaptation assessment (Activity 1); and support the development and implement training modules on vulnerability in the transport sector and adaptation options (Activity 2).
Qualifications required:	 Education: Bachelor degree in Engineering. Professional experience: 3 years practical experience in GIS and its application to planning; Have an understanding of civil society involvement in local government and planning (skills related to group facilitation would be an asset); An understanding of climate change, natural hazards and the vulnerability concept is required; Have some work experience in local government (whether full-time or through study placements); Language knowledge: Excellent written and spoken communication skills (in English).
Other information:	If you are interested in this position please send your CV under the heading "Zambia National GIS Specialist". When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (daily rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
Contact:	lot2@ntu.eu

