

Project title:	Short Term Expert for the supply of a training of aero-medical examiners for ATA-AC project Implementing Framework Contract No EASA.2016.FC12
Position:	Short Term Expert(STE) for the supply of a training of aero-medical examiners
Location:	Kinshasa, Congo DR (or in another ECCAS member state – subject to change)
Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Start of project:	April 2017 (subject to change)
Assignment duration:	Maximum 6 WD
Deadline for the applications:	23/01/2017
Objective of the project:	The purpose of this specific contract is to supply a classroom-based training of aero-medical examiners in accordance with ICAO Manual of Civil Aviation Medicine (Doc 8984) to improve their understanding of regulatory civil aviation medicine. The training should allow aero-medical examiner to familiarise with the particularities of aviation medicine.
Qualifications required:	Technical tasks to be performed: The STE will animate a 5 day training of aero-medical examiners in line with the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• ICAO medical SARPs related to assessment of aeromedical risks, appropriate guidance material from the ICAO Doc 8984 relevant to facilitating the effective implementation of medical SARPs.</li><li>• Aeromedical decision making process of determining the medical fitness of pilots, air traffic controllers, and license applicants.</li></ul> Specific professional experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• C level French speaking according to the Common European Framework of Language;</li><li>• A minimum of five years' experience working as designated aero-medical examiner for a EU national aviation authority;</li><li>• Past experience as a trainer in the field required;</li><li>• Prior experience working with EASA or EU national aviation authorities</li><li>• Good knowledge of ICAO requirements;</li><li>• Extensive experience in operational co-operation activities;</li><li>• Experience in international and/or multicultural environments;</li><li>• Good knowledge of the international framework for civil aviation safety regulation;</li><li>• Proven expertise in summarizing complex situations and conveying key messages to<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• senior management;</li><li>• Problem solving skills and attention to details;</li><li>• Good analytical skills and ability to provide clear and concise reports</li><li>• Good communication skills in English and French, including the ability to produce high quality written material and presentations for a variety of audiences;</li><li>• Relevant experience in supporting developing countries would be advantageous</li></ul></li></ul>
Other information:	If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading “Short Term Expert for ATA-AC project- Congo”. When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
Contact:	aviation@ntu.eu