

Position: Development Economist and Team Leader Location: Barbados All nationalities: All nationalities: All nationalities: Objective of the project: Objective of the project: The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization of domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Oualification and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verball) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development planning: • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional as	Project title:	Domestic Resource Mobilisation Programme aimed at modernizing the informal
Barbados All nationalities: All nationalities: All nationalities: All nationalities: All nationalities: Oz/05/2017 Assignment duration: 40 WD Ozhodina Ozh	Project title.	economy in Barbados
Eligible nationalities: Start of project: O2/05/2017 Assignment duration: Deadline for the applications: Objective of the project: The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization or domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic assessment of the informal economy and means through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Qualifications and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports. • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. • A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning: • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning: • Practical experience in foundation of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one	Position:	Development Economist and Team Leader
Start of project: O2/05/2017 Assignment duration: Deadline for the applications: Objective of the project: The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization of domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic assessment of the informal economy and means through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Qualification and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in Development/ Education Economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in Development planning: • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning: • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning: • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies,	Location:	Barbados
Assignment duration: Deadline for the applications: Objective of the project: The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization or domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic assessment of the informal economy and means through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Qualification and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in Development/ Education Economics. • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning; • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning; • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning; • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studi	Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Deadline for the applications: 27-03-2017 The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization of domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic assessment of the informal economy and means through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Qualification and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verball) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/ quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning; • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning Other information: If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Domestic Resource Mobilisation Programme aimed at modernizing the informal economy in Barbados." When sending your application please includ	Start of project:	02/05/2017
Objective of the project: The overall objective is to provide a framework for the effective mobilization or domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualifications required: Qualification and Competences The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports. Well-developed analytical and research skills Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development planning. At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/ quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development Economics. Specific Professional Experience A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning; Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning Other information: If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Domestic Resourc	Assignment duration:	40 WD domestic resources for the purpose of sustainable economic development. This initiative will be undertaken through a comprehensive economic assessment of the informal economy and means through which the sector can be modernized. This procedure would assist in the efficient execution of the Domestic Revenue Mobilization process. Qualification and Competences • The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills • Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience • At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. • Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. • At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience • A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. • A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in Development planning; • Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning Other information: If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Domestic Resource Mobilisation Programme aimed at modernizing the informal economy in Barbados." When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Deadline for the applications:	27-03-2017
The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports Well-developed analytical and research skills Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience A t least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning; Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning Other information: If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading "Domestic Resource Mobilisation Programme aimed at modernizing the informal economy in Barbados." When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.	Objective of the project:	·
Resource Mobilisation Programme aimed at modernizing the informal economy in Barbados." When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.		 The consultant should have at least a Postgraduate degree in economics. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports Well-developed analytical and research skills Computer literacy in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) SPSS and or equivalent software programmes. General Professional Experience At least 12 years' experience in economic analysis, public policy analysis or development planning. Practical knowledge and experience in the evaluation or implementation of donor supported projects in general and educational initiatives in particular. At least seven years' experience in leading assignments involving econometric analysis/quantitative analysis, evaluation and research in the area of development or education economics. Specific Professional Experience A minimum of five years of broad international experience in Development/ Education Economics. A minimum of five years practical and proven experience in designing or evaluating public policy, particularly those related to development planning; Practical experience in conducting economic impact/assessment studies, conducting institutional assessments, or development planning
	Other information:	When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers.
	Contact:	·