

Project title:	Design, Develop and Deliver a Macro- Fiscal Modelling Programme for the Economic Affairs Division of the Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs, Barbados
Position:	ICT-Expert
Location:	Barbados
Eligible nationalities:	All nationalities
Start of project:	02/05/2017
Assignment duration:	35 WD
Deadline for the applications:	27-03-2017
Objective of the project:	The overall objective of the project is to design, develop and deliver a macro economic model for the Economic Affairs Division whilst strengthening the policy framework of the Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs to provide more credible, authoritative and evidence based policy decisions.
Qualifications required:	Qualifications and Skills Required <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A minimum of a Master’s degree in management information systems or a relevant, directly related discipline or equivalent • Certified training in systems or business analysis • Certified training in software development • Hands on experience in developing information technology related to macro-fiscal modelling and management • Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (written and verbal) of the English language, including the preparation of high quality reports • Well-developed analytical and research skills General Professional Experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A minimum of 12 years’ relevant experience conducting systems analysis, designing, and implementing ICT solutions to improve business operations • Practical experiences in advising on the creation and development of Information Communication Technology platform to facilitate an integrated and automated Statistical data and metadata exchange SDMX between data suppliers and economic model builders particularly in small island developing countries • Strong ability to communicate and relate complex ideas in a way that can be absorbed by staff with little background in modern ICT applications. Specific Professional Experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A minimum of five years of working experience in the development and implementation information communication strategies, business IT alignment, management of hardware and software platforms and telecommunications facilities and knowledge of windows-based packages/applications, web design and development of web-based office applications. • Relevant experience in information systems design and modelling. • Advanced knowledge of web services, development of Service Oriented Architecture (SOA) and Interoperability Frameworks. • Knowledge of collaborative technologies (e.g. instant messaging, web conferencing and document management). • Relevant experience in facilitating SDMX platform within Ministries of Finance or Central Banks would be an asset. • Ability to work flexibly with local counterparts to help developing countries take action in a strategic context
Other information:	If you are interested in this position, please send your CV under the heading “Design, Develop and Deliver a Macro- Fiscal Modelling Programme for the Economic Affairs Division of the Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs, Barbados” When sending your application please include an indication of your desired remuneration (month-rate). Please also make sure that you include one or more telephone numbers. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
Contact:	lot2@ntu.eu